Heather-

I really don't know what to write to sum up everything that's happened this year. It's been crazy. I'm so glad we became close friends and I'll never forget Floyd... Zissy Marley - Andy Basokos, your cast party + all your diffrent boyfriends etc. You're a really special person and I know you'll make it if you keep your sense of humor. Don't forget us high schoolers when you're on campus. Don't forget
I will visit. 20,000 guys have a great summer you're really lucky. Have a great summer we'll make plans really soon.

Love
Nicole
P.S. I hope you can stay yourself this crazy world - there's balance between making yourself vulnerable and defending yourself. I hope you find it.

Heather,

You are a sweet person & I'll miss you a lot - Have fun at the beach - sorry I can't come too - Good luck in future & be good (I know that is hard for you)

DEDICATION

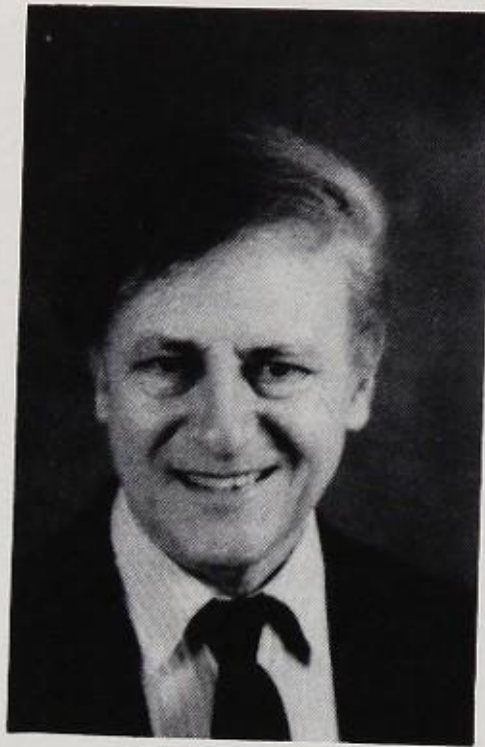

DAVID SIMON
Director, BSFA

The 1988 Collage is dedicated to Mr. David Simon, Director, BSFA. Without your attention and dedication for the students, the school would not be the same. It was not until your lengthy absence that we realized how much you meant to us. The school would never be the same without you.

THE BALTIMORE SCHOOL FOR THE ARTS

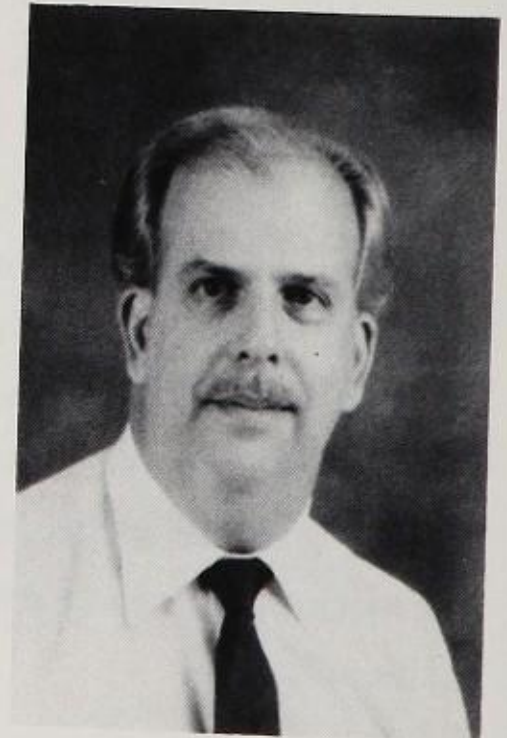

The Baltimore School for the Arts is one of a handful of nationwide high schools that is devoted to intensive art studies. Originally the Alcazar Hotel, the building has been renovated into a productive atmosphere for art and academic studies. The school incorporates quality academics with the pursuit of knowledge in dance, music, theatre or the visual arts. Located in the historic district of Mt. Vernon, students are in the midst of Baltimore's cultural center. Surrounded by art galleries, theatres, music schools and dance companies, students are exposed to their medium at professional levels. Supported by the city, students must audition to gain entrance and maintain good grades in order to remain in the school.

Sometimes it seems so hard to understand. You get it figured out but by then you've reached the end. And all the sad songs you've heard, echo in the night. You sit in your room writing poems of dinners by candlelight. You dance a slow dance, and it's your last dance. You'd do it again but you'll never get the chance. To relive all the memories you lost one day, when you looked around and saw you were going away.

Lisa Michelle Duggan-Dancer

When I first started coming to The Baltimore School for the Arts in 1982 as a T.W.I.G.S. student, I found this to be a family school. This school welcomed me with open arms and hearts. Everyone here at the school helped me in every way. When I gave up on myself, they didn't. They pushed me to keep on going and to never give up.

I feel that coming to this school as a high school student in 1985 has helped me to grow. When there were tough times in my life, helping hands were reached out to help me with these troubles.

As I walked into the building, and the days were gray and black, the warm hugs and smiles would help to make the days easier.

As a dancer, I have learned that I can do whatever I put my mind to doing. I have also learned to reach and to keep going for what I want. Today I give it my best, and tomorrow I give it my all.

I would to say thank you to all of my teachers for pushing me and not giving up on me.

Thank you to all of my family and friends for standing behind me and believing in me.

I must give a special thanks to my mom and dad for standing beside me through every move I made, and for helping me to believe in myself. They would say, "Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changes until it is faced." Thank you mom and dad, I love you both.

And to Allison my little sister, thank you for looking up to me. I'm not always right, but I try to do my best. I will always be there for you. When I was down she would look at me, smile, and say, "Think of the unicorn, If you believe in me then I'll believe in you." I do believe in you Allison. I love you.

Thank you Mrs. Block for always being there when I needed you. I could always count on you. You are just like a mother to me. I will never forget you. I love you always.

And to Michele Amrhein, Terry Taylor, Becky Schnydman, and Michelle Craig, thank you all for being my friend, and for just being there when I needed you. I remember all of the laughs and tears. You all mean so much to me. I love you all. Good luck to you all.

A THOUSAND THINGS ARE RUNNING THROUGH MY MIND; A CRAZY, HAPPY, CONFUSED, AND URGENT FEELING OZZES THROUGH MY BONES. SO MANY PHASES OF MY LIFE ARE ENDING AND NEW ONES BEGINNING. I'VE A MILLION WALLS TO KNOCK DOWN AND ONE HUGE, BLURRY PLACE THAT I'M TRYING TO GET TO. IF I CAN'T SAY IT WITH MY HAND-WRITING, IT WILL BE SAID IN MY CHOREOGRAPHY. I HAVE SO LONG TO GO, BUT I WANT TO MASTER THIS ART. I WANT TO CREATE PIECES THAT WILL NOT ONLY EXPRESS, BUT ALSO TOUCH PEOPLE-TOUCH THEM WITH STICKY FINGERS AND FORCE THEM TO THINK, TO CRY, TO SHAKE. WHERE IS ALL THIS SECURITY GOING TO GO? FOUR MORE YEARS OF INSTITUTION AND DEV-ELOPEMENT AND I'LL BE A FREE BIRD, A NAKED BIRD, A BIRD THAT WILL HAVE TO BE BOLD ENOUGH TO SPREAD ITS WINGS AND FLY, BOLD ENOUGH TO FACE ICY WORDS AND ICY WINDS.

Dance is a universal language, it speaks to everyone.

To all my friends at Baltimore School for the Arts. There is not enough room in this whole book for me to name each one of you, or to tell you just how much you have meant to me over the years, months, weeks and days.

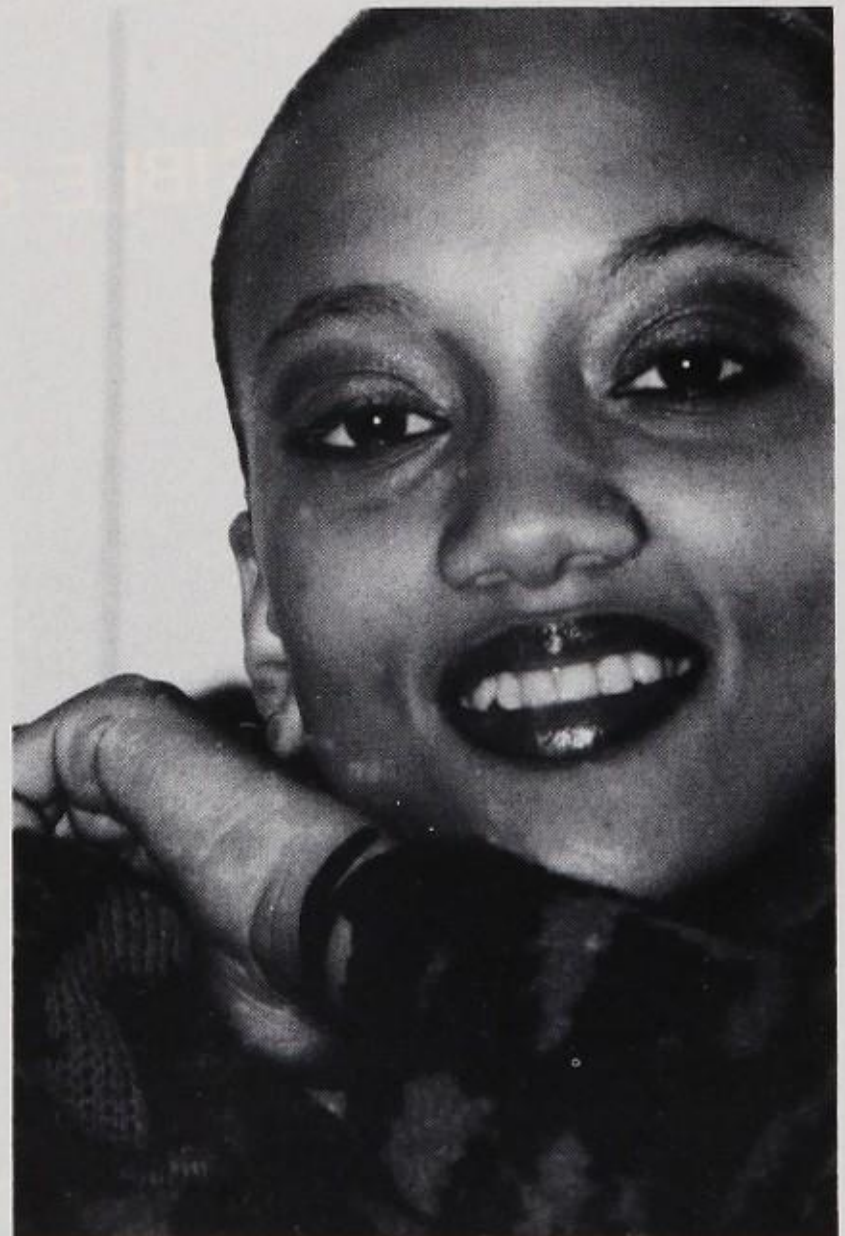

There is enough room for me to thank you all for the support in the good times and the bad times. I will remember each and every one of you for the rest of my life.

To my friends that I must leave behind: don't forget me. Remember I will always be there for you for what ever you may need me for.

Indeed the time has passed—But I am still thinking, living—and now remembering. Those years they call "school days" are really not ending—For me, the learning will last for many seconds beyond comprehension. The stars have shone, shot—sometimes disappeared but always flew within, between, in and around my path, that may have been crooked at times. Once again—newness will surround me on all sides but in a more mature atmosphere—→ Maybe—... for I have discovered that many of those who inhabit the adult world are disguised children with petty stupidities which are characterized as selfishness. Yes—that is my goal, to destroy self because—well that is my secret... Right now intoxication floods my space, for I am influenced by many, most things that contain energy... hopefully good—but I am disguised by youth which is characterized by innocence—→ I have a true liking though—I like being a girl, I guess I always will be—Maybe that is my point... Even though I went through puberty and now continuing through adolescence with a slight hint of cleavage. I still giggle like a silly girl... in love with everything that lives and makes my soul soar, reach, laugh and smile, stretch, fly—~ ~ ~

Karaleigh: We've had MUCH fun together. Always remember the Berlin Chamber Ensemble and the Cleveland quartet (We were fierce!!) There was always MASSIVE laughter as we TRIED to play Mozart and Beethoven the "right way." Don't EVER forget: the naked woman our ENTIRE homeroom saw, Miss Frankfort and you swooshing the hair, many embarrassing chamber recitals, the lights going out while changing clothes in the 5th floor Girls Bathroom, people not wearing socks in winter, Mr. Marshall not being able to pronounce your name, 4 part writing, getting thrown out of the library, the CAT test (need I say more), being quite URBAN at the recitals, the tacky cars our mommies own, cutting Herr Fassler's class and getting caught ("We were asleep in the recital hall."), smacking the lips in a VERY URBAN manner while drinking a beverage and eating Funyuns, Beethoven's 3rd symphony (especially the opening chunks which always scared us), Ms. Foulkes starting and stopping the C.D. player, colorful clothing (especially green), etc., etc. YOU MADE SCHOOL TOLERABLE..YOU'LL ALWAYS BE MY FAVORITE VIOLA MAMMA...I LOVE YOU BOUCHE!!!

.....Jenny: You're a great friend. I'll miss you. Remember to square off. By the way, will you marry me?

.....Michael: You're a fierce vocalist. Continue to "work" the lieder. I'm glad we became friends. Good Luck Always!!

.....Inglá (My favorite subway pal): You're beautiful and VERY talented-Don't change for ANYONE. Remember the man who fell down the escalator in the subway station!!!!

.....Joyce: It's been a massively fun year. I'll NEVER forget our miserable science lab group belieF me!

.....Bernard(JVLTC): What can be said that hasn't already been said. We've been through MUCH. You'll always mean a lot to me. Listen to Brahms' Clarinet Quintet in b minor Op.115.

.....Bart: You've certainly chosen the most appropriate career. If only I'd known then what I know now...

.....Good Luck to: Dawn (from Charlie Brown), Cleveland, everyone in my Theory III class (remember the theory hot-line: 765-4342), "Crustal" R., "Crustal" H. (I know you'll be a fierce lawyer), "Ern" my home-girl, Stefanie ("cello mamma"), Stephen (remember the word "pencil"), Felicia, Raeanna ("Pissy-Rae"), Sean ("Trumpet Man"), Michelle (My favorite Sir), and last, but not least, Schweiger (master of indolence)!!

.....Mr. Harriman(SIR)-Thanks for letting me go to music camp...BAKER- I just know you'll miss me...Monsieur Tabegna et Madame Warsal- J'ai eu de la chance de vous rencontrer. Je vous remercie beaucoup...Mr. Mahonske & Ms. Foulkes- You two have given me the most priceless musical knowledge I could ever hope to receive. You're both AMAZING musicians, teachers, and people. Thank you for EVERYTHING!!!

To my mother & stepfather - thanks for all the advise, guidance, inspiration, patience, & giving me that extra push when I needed it! I Love you both! THANKS ALOT!
To God - I thank him for giving me the opportunity to experience the goodness of life because I know that alot of other people haven't got the chances that I have had.

Nathan - Well Bouchet, it has been a trip. It all started in 10th grade when I first met you. We had chamber class together - with Cleveland, Loy, Robert, Brian, and you & me. From there it has been great times. For example: the twang in our instruments, extra rehearsals for chorus, smacking of Kindergarten the lips, tripping off the teachers, playing practical jokes, not speaking to certain teachers, sight singing, 4 part writing, recitals, orchestra with Mr. Szabo - you not being able to join, the CAT test, getting each other into much trouble, people being taud & wearing no socks in the winter time, our Little Christmas party, not going to classes, reflections with the face of the watch, being loud in the hall ways, ugly faces, Pleny Good Room, Mr. Grass's index finger, Mr. Marshall always giving notes, Jenny's laugh, Mr. Wade throwing the book at us, Ms. Lacourse working the hair, (Want a piece of gum Ms. Lacourse?) Daph & Lil, Don't touch me, I won't give you any, Physical Science Exam, going down the projects, cheating, & the hole in your sweat pants. Don't forget the famous lines: See what I'm saying baby, believe me, viola momma, very taud, the swush effect, fierce, & I'll never forget the Wally green socks! (And getting put out of the library)

Joyce - you have 1 more year to go girl - stay fierce & work your last year! You're still loud - believe me. I will always remember the talks we had. (Keith & Sean) You're a great friend!

Crystal - You're one loud child. I know you'll be that fierce Lawyer!

Felicia - You're really crazy & wild - livin' all the way out in the boondocks!

Michael - You're a fierce singer - I know you will make it. Keep it up!

Lisa - I will always be able to tell when you're up to something. (turtle neck)

I will miss everyone else: Harrison, Wibur, Sean, Reggie, Dawn, Kenyatta,

Stephen, Stefanie, Quentin, Cleveland, Jenny, Holly, David, Joseph,

Is that what you want to do? Quit?
Anybody can do that. Takes no guts.

you so much - but you already know that. I don't know what else to say but that I have never had a friend as our final parting, our friendship grows. Bartie

 * The Breakfast Club *

Heath,

We thought senior year would never come and now it has! I feel relief and anxiety all at the same time. Isn't it ironic that just as we are ending a four year space in our life, we are beginning again as freshmen! We will go through many more experiences. We ^{will} have pleasures and letdowns, parties and lonely nights. We will go through many more friends, new friends: but we will never forget the old friendships. Friendships such as ours are hard to come by. (profound?!)

I am really gonna miss you. Any time you feel upset or lonely just give me a call way up in Syracuse. This isn't parting, merely a breach of space. Just remember, as long as there are still phones and stationary, planes and trains we can get in touch with each other to discuss the things that we can only tell each other.

Luv ya,
Kathy
